To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.

New-York, Oct. 16, 1856.

Nirt Understanding that a report calculated and designed to injure me eriously in the estimation of my friends and the public, and thatchy my prospects of the election to the office of the Street Commissioner, for which I am a can iddate at the enuming election. has been extensively circulated to the effect that I have said out to Joseph S. Faylor, a candidate for the same effice, I desire through your columns to deny emphatically the truth or such a report on the contrary, lintend by all nonest and honerable means in my power to strive for success in the contest, and I hope my friends will not allow themselves to be influenced against me by any such malicious reports.

Respectfully yours, &c., JAMES DEWKY.

The undersigned would take this method of informing the voters of the VIIIth Ward that at the carnest solicitation of numerous friends and taxpayers he has consented to become a candidate for the office of ASSESSOR.

THE COMMITTEE of ARRANGEMENTS for

THE COMMITTEE of ARRANGEMENTS for the ANNUAL FESTIVAL in sid of the ROMAN CATHOLIC ORPHAN ASYLUMS, respectfully as nounce that it will take place at the Academy of Music in 14th-z. on THURSDAY, the 18th inst.

Owing to the limited accommodations which the Academy affords, compared to those of Castic Garden, where it has taken place heretofors, the Committee have erranged for two detinct series of entertainments on the day designated above; one in the afterneous at 3 o'clock, and the other in the evening at 7 o'c ock. The same reason obliges them to charge on that occasion full price for the admission of children.

While the Committee, in view of the generous sympathy which has always been manifested for the destitute and helpless little ones whom the Festival is designed to benefit, feel that formal appeal is unnecessary, they take occasion to tate that the condition of the Asylums is such as to require the immediate and energetic exertions of all their patrices. The past essembles are all the conditions of the greatest embarrasument to the Minagers, who have been constantly perpleted to provide not only for present and pressing wants, but to procupe means wherewith to satisfy obligations already incurred. The present moment finds the treasury empty, the institutions in cebe, creditors importunate, and the necessary empties for Winter yet unprovided Under these circumstances they are again forced to appeal to the chairty of the community which has so nobly and liberally responded to every former appeal.

A BOOK FOR BOTH SEXES .-

THE PHILOSOPHY OF MARRIAGE.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF MARRIAGE.

By Married Man and Distinguished Physician.

It is one of the meet remarkable books which has been published in any country. In language simple, decorous and respectful, and in terms of fatherly kindness, it reveals to the young of both sexes a fund of information hitherto inaccessible to any reliable form, and for want of which many have been prompted to resort to sources either questionable or of immoral tendency. The work is written by one of our oldest and most experienced medical men, who has evoted a long life to the study of Poyslotey. The work was examined to manuscript by competent judges, and pronounced to be as unexceptionable as any work which has appeared in the English language. It breathes, moreover, a truly Christian spirit.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6.—
THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteenth year; Voi XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the lat of Soptember last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With he is a subordinate regard for prudence, policy or popularity, it has aimset as stars for Righteenmannes, for Trubs, for Hamaning, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, though he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes payable, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabilitator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and lumeral paper, and wonder why its publication is tolerated in a commercial, cotton-buying. City like New-York. The Newark Mascust once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, griptog, arrewing, avaricious employer who was not hoetile to THE TRIBUNE, not one eminently genorous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and plain-spoken in its demandations of iniquity and almose of power, while claiming no excuppion from human fallibility, it may have done 'emporary is justice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cites of the wronged and sufferior. The fourth edition of this charming new novel is now ready. Says The Cincir nati Christian Journal and Mewengert.

"It is above the ordinary class of fictions. The piot is ingenious, its development is absorbins, and its denon-ment, with one or two exceptions, peaking and happy. The characters are distinctive well drawn, and straking—pertraits of persuas sometimes seen in mixed society. The trent for description, and for metice paniting, is of a high ans refined order. Exquisite sensibility gushes out on every page."

"I sora's Child' is a well written, interesting and attractive bock. It will attract the notice and absorb the sitention of many who are satisfied with the present race of fictions, for it is executed in that free, equal and unexaggerated style to which must of that broad are strangers. We predict for it a success commensurate with its many media."

failbility, it may have done 'emporary leptance to Individuals, but it has never here unfaithful to Principle, nor does to the cities of the wronged and suffering. In the columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories contemplating the meliuration of human wors, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden have ever found mulistice and hospitality, while it has ardently resisted, and will perdatently combat, every attempt to procerbe and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, Creed, or Color.

In defiarce of calumnies the most atroctors, and of hostilities the most deadly and untiling, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers, each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devotad; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; a said of valued correspondents ancircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of atrention; while Politics, Legislation, literature, Agi, History—in short whatever affects the social well-being of mankind, Polemic Theology alone excepted—finds here the freest and most searching discussion.

Attached by prefound conviction to the beneficent policy of Industrial development and internal Internommunication whose most conspiceous champion through the isset His f-Century was HENRY CLAY—imbued, moreover, with that spirit of forberance toward our weaker neighbors and toward the much wringed Aborigines of this Continent and of Peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig, THE TRISUNE, whill surrendering no jot of its proper independence cooperated earnestly and ardently with the Whig party so long as its vitality was preserved.
